LDD Programmes at Westminster Kingsway College

We offer a range of courses at Westminster Kingsway College for young people aged 16-25 and adults.

The 16-25 courses offer a broad range of vocational tasters where the learners make their own bespoke timetable by choosing different options. Learners can work towards and achieve nationally accredited qualifications in personal progress, employability and vocational areas

All courses have English and Maths, and these are delivered in different ways dependent on the learners own learning style. This can be with either discrete classes or simply embedded into the course through everyday activities such as budgeting, shopping and social sight. Learners always work towards Maths, English and ICT functional skill qualifications where this is appropriate and meets their needs.

Developing learners' employability skills are seen as a key priority on all programmes. This is achieved in many different ways according to learners' individual needs including specific employment learning targets, work placements and a place on our brand new Supported Internship.

LDD Programmes at Westminster Kingsway College

Independent living skills are delivered on all programmes.

For our courses for learners with severe learning disabilities (SLD) this will be the main emphasis alongside communication skills, whereas our courses for learners with moderate learning disabilities (MLD) will have a strong emphasis on vocational and employment alongside independent living skills.

All learners have a personal tutor who looks after their learning programme and learners have excellent levels of learning support available to them, including one to one where required. All of our LDD groups have learning support in them.

For information about the LDD classes at Westminster Kingsway College, please contact the LDD team. Email courseinfo@westking.ac.uk.

Student Profile

"It is a good College. You get to meet lots of new people and make friends. I really like drama and English on my course but my favourite is the cooking class as we get to make new things."

Alexandra College

Westminster Kingsway College is working in partnership with Camden Borough Council and specialist provider MacIntyre to provide provision for young people aged 16 to 25 with profound and multiple learning disabilities (PMLD) and autism that is delivered all year round in a newly refurbished centre in Camden.

The new Alexandra College has been re-modelled to ensure that the learning and living space is fully accessible. The curriculum will focus on health, independent living and community inclusion and the learning is underpinned by specialist therapist support. Programmes will be flexible and individualised, focussing on what the students need to learn to support their transition from school to adulthood and prepare them for what they want to do next. As part of their Individual Learning Plan, students may access courses and vocational training opportunities at other Westminster Kingsway College Centres.
