

Southwark Information Advice and Support Team

We provide children, young people and parents with information and advice on services relating to special educational needs and disabilities. This includes:

- Advice for 0 to 25 year olds around education, health and social care
- Individual casework and representation for those who need it
- Advice for young people aged 16-25
- Help when things go wrong
- Drop in sessions at Sunshine House
- Training & events for young people, parents and professionals
- Signposting to other services via the local offer
- Working in partnership with local groups representing parents and young people
