

AUTISM SUPPORT TEAM TRAINING

MAKING SENSE OF AUTISM – EARLY YEARS

In partnership with the Autism Education Trust (AET) we are offering Making Sense of Autism module for early years settings. This is a raising awareness module for anyone working in the setting. This includes all staff, those working directly with children, but also, managers, proprietors, office staff, caterers, caretakers, and governors.

Aims:

- Enhance your understanding and awareness of autism and how autism can affect a child in the early years.
- Identify potential barriers to learning for autistic children

Learning objectives:

- Understand the importance of getting to know the child as an individual and understanding their profile of strengths and needs
- Begin to make reasonable adjustments to the way in which you support autistic children.
- Have knowledge and understanding of the importance of one-page profiles and how to collect information to support this

The course is being offered for free.

Dates: 12th June 9 am – 1 pm
