Spitalfields Farm—Wednesday 7th August
Join us for a fun filled day at Spitalfields City Farm. The farmyard is at the centre of the farm, and home to many much loved animals and great characters. The animals are a learning resource for all who use the farm. Among the many different animals are sheep, geese, rabbits, cows, pigs, chicken, donkeys and many more

The farm has a wide variety of green spaces that visitors and volunteers can enjoy. All our spaces wouldn’t exist without their amazing volunteers. They provide all of the hard work, enthusiasm, fun and expertise with a wide range of gardening/landscaping/food growing/wildlife skills. In the last year, the Farm has become a haven for wild flowers and herbs which are now dotted all over the farm.

There is a mobile hut selling food, or please bring your own lunch along!

We ask that families make their own way to Spitalfields Farm and meet us there at 11am. All details with public transport information will be given in the confirmation letter.
